

Robert P. Armstrong, Jr.

Associate

📍 2345 Grand Blvd.
Suite 2100
Kansas City, MO 64108

☎ 816-472-2932

✉ rarmstrong@bjpc.com

Robert P. Armstrong, Jr. is an associate attorney with Brown & James, P.C. Originally from Wyandotte County, Kansas, Robert began his practice there as an Assistant District Attorney. Robert currently practices in the firm's Kansas City office in the areas of business and commercial litigation, insurance law, product liability, and professional liability.

Robert attended Kansas City Kansas Community College, where he played basketball, then the University of Kansas to finish his undergraduate studies, and finally Washburn University School of Law.

In his leisure time, Robert enjoys playing basketball, attending concerts and shows, as well as supporting all things Kansas City. Robert gives back to the community through his service as a Board Member of the Boys & Girls Club of Lawrence, Kansas, the Secretary for the Wyandotte County Bar Association, volunteering to aid local nonprofit organizations, and coaching youth sports.

Prior Legal Experience

Assistant District Attorney (Wyandotte County)

Law Clerk (Jackson County)

Small Business and Nonprofit Transactional Law Clinic (Washburn)

Law Clerk (Washburn Third Year Anywhere), Intern (Third Chair Federal Defense)

Academic Honors and Activities

McNair Scholar (KU)

ABA Representative (Washburn)

Business and Transactional Law Center, Student Fellow (Washburn)

Dean's Diversity Leadership Council (Washburn)

Community Activities

Boys and Girls Club of Lawrence Kansas, Board Member

Practice Areas

Business and Commercial
Litigation
Insurance Law
Professional Liability

More About Robert

Education & Bar Admissions

Education

- Washburn University School of Law (J.D., 2022)
- University of Kansas (B.A., Health and Physical Education, 2019)

Bar Admissions

- Kansas

Recent Achievements

- National Black Lawyers Top 40 Under 40 (2024)

Professional Affiliations

- Wyandotte County Bar Association, Secretary