

Blake Courtney is a graduate of Ball State University, Indiana with a Bachelor of Science degree in Criminal Justice and Criminology. Prior to living in Illinois, Ms. Courtney worked for the Indiana State Police at the Indiana Intelligence Fusion Center in which she collected analytics and data research of criminal activity and trends.

Ms. Courtney received her Paralegal Certificate from Duke University. Her education and experience handling contested probate matters, trust and will contests, breach of contract cases, commercial evictions, and various chancery and appellate matters, make her a great resource for clients and counsel alike. It is her attention to detail and her ability to analyze facts that have afforded her a successful career as a paralegal.
