

Ms. Hsu-Hulseberg concentrates her practice on estate planning, probate administration, and trust matters. She advises clients on federal and state transfer tax issues, as well as non-tax issues such as planning for blended families and providing for family members with special needs. Ms. Hsu-Hulseberg especially enjoys developing relationships with clients and learning about their families and their planning goals; and she provides legal counsel and planning documents that are tailored to each client's unique circumstances.
