June L. Basden to Speak at PLI Seminar on Asset Based Financing Strategies

March 11, 2013

Banking & Finance attorney will be speaking at the Practising Law Institute (PLI) Seminar entitled “Asset Based Financing Strategies 2013” on March 11, 2013.

This full-day program will take place in New York City and will also be available live via webcast. The program is intended for attorneys and asset-based lenders already experienced in the field or seeking a general refresher or update. The program will review the basics of asset-based lending briefly before concentrating on more advanced issues and strategies. At this program, attendees will learn about most common forms of asset-based financing, and the legal rules governing them, with particular emphasis on Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code and the Bankruptcy Code.

In addition, Basden and the faculty will share what they have learned in representing secured creditors and borrowers in structuring asset-based loans and in enforcing them inside and outside of bankruptcy. The faculty will also discuss a number of ethical issues that arise in asset-based financings. For more information or to register online, please click or contact PLI at 1-(800) 260-4PLI.
