Attorneys

Carruthers & Roth offers the best of both worlds. Our attorneys are exposed to clients and opportunities characteristic of a 'big city' firm – while working in a collegial and collaborative environment typical of a smaller, community-based practice.

We offer competitive compensation, a strong benefits package and opportunities for continuing education. We also support our attorneys in leading a balanced life, with ample time for family, friends and community involvement.

Support Staff

The assistants and paralegals on our support team play a critical role in the success of Carruthers & Roth and help us deliver exceptional service to our clients. We look for individuals who are committed, experienced and eager to work in an environment where their contributions are valued.
