

Our Firm

We are in the solution business.

For more than 85 years, Carruthers & Roth has provided trusted legal representation, counsel and planning services to individuals, entrepreneurs, local businesses, and regional and national corporations. Our clients benefit from our experience in a wide range of practice areas, including banking and finance, commercial real estate, litigation and matters involving businesses, taxes, estate planning and estate administration.

Each client also benefits from our service orientation and from our collaborative, results-oriented approach to our work. We strive to find the right solution, whether you need practical, straightforward advice or a creative approach to a complex challenge. We get to know you, understand your objectives and design a tailor-made response. As a result, you get the informed advice you need to address your own unique needs and goals.

Spanning state and country borders.

Our firm is poised to support your legal needs wherever they occur. To extend our reach, we are an active participant in the Legal Netlink Alliance – a group of premier, midsized law firms in more than 90 locations worldwide. Member firms are selected based on their reputation for quality, professionalism and exceptional client service. As a result, we have ready access to other like-minded attorneys around the world who share our commitment to high-quality solutions delivered at an exceptional value.

Carruthers & Roth, P.A.
(336) 379-8651
235 North Edgeworth Street
P.O. Box 540 (27402)
Greensboro, NC 27401