Healthcare Professionals & Practices

Healthcare professionals and their practices have needs that can run the gamut – from the challenges of building a successful business to planning for a stress-free retirement. Carruthers & Roth has a highly experienced, multidisciplinary team to help. We work closely with your managing partners, practice administrators, CPAs and other key advisors to help you build an enduring organization and achieve both your personal and professional goals.

We also have a team of litigators who vigorously defend physicians and other healthcare providers in medical malpractice matters and in hearings before licensing and credentialing boards. In fact, a Carruthers & Roth litigator is one of only six attorneys to be named to Medical Mutual Insurance Company of North Carolina’s “Diamond Defense Team” – retained to represent healthcare professionals in the most difficult and complex cases.
