Volunteer Mindy Liu: A Maker Makes a Difference

By Emmett Findley, Director of Communications

“I grew up in a restaurant, which taught me the importance of food. Food means everything, from community, to love, to warmth, and to care. There’s nothing like being able to put a plate of food in front of someone and know they’ll enjoy it.

I’ve always wanted to give back and be involved with my community. By day, I work as a studio manager, but I am a maker and a crafter. I think it only makes sense that I come to God’s Love to create – here, we make delicious and nutritious food for our clients, and there’s no better feeling than that.

There’s a lot that keeps me coming back to God’s Love, but most of all, it’s the friends I’ve made... and the smells in the kitchen!”

Mindy’s been volunteering with us since 2013 and we are so grateful for her spirit, her teamwork and commitment to our clients! ♥ Thank you, Mindy ♥
