On Tuesday, September 23, God's Love We Deliver was honored to join Architectural Digest editor in chief Margaret Russell, Liebherr and many friends and supporters from the design world for Fall Fête, a party to benefit God's Love.

Guests—including Jesse Carrier, Jamie Drake, Steven Gambrel, Celerie Kemble, Mara Miller, and Miles Redd, to name just a few—enjoyed the Loft at the Savant Experience Center, designed by Thom Filicia, who was also in attendance. Not to be missed were the intriguing cocktails created by noted mixologist Xavier Herit of New York City's Wallflower.

Our biggest thanks to everyone involved in the night for your great support of God's Love!
