

On Sunday, January 11, friends and supporters of God's Love joined the Outsider Art Fair at L'Apicio for a fun brunch to kick off the Fair and support God's Love.

God's Love would like to thank hosting restaurant L'Apicio and Epicurian Events for providing much of the delicious food at the brunch. Look for their food at the café at the Outsider Art Fair!

Hunter Kirby Farmer provided the divine crispy venison with onion marmalade on buttermilk biscuits. Look for Kirby's hunting lodge/boarding house and restaurant in Hudson, NY this summer called "Wm. Farmer and Sons." Bed Stuy resident Marlon Morales provided home-brewed beer for the brunch. Thanks to Ron Levine for providing the brunchers with home-made pickles.

We're grateful to everyone who came out to the brunch and we hope you join us at the Outsider Art Fair's opening night on January 29 at Center 548!
