By Emmett Findley, Director of Communications

We are so thrilled to announce that WebMD, our Platinum Sponsor for Love Rocks NYC, has named God's Love We Deliver their Game Changer Health Hero as part of their 2020 Health Heroes series.

In addition, our story as WebMD's Game Changer Health Hero is featured in the March/April issue of WebMD Magazine. The story, which begins on page 46, includes interviews with our President & CEO Karen Pearl, client Ata, great friends Neil Patrick Harris and David Burtka, Love Rocks NYC performer and former NY Yankee Bernie Williams, and Board member Chef Mike Anthony. On page 60, readers will see three of our recipes in the "Food" section along with interviews with our Director of Nutrition Services Lisa Zullig and Executive Chef Daniel Metzger.

Please visit the third floor Volunteer Lounge to see a six-foot tall blown up version of the magazine's cover which stars Neil Patrick Harris and David Burtka.
