Happy Birthday, Joan!

By Emmett Findley, Director of Communications

Today, God's Love staff, volunteers, Board Members and friends honored the late, great Joan Rivers and her more than 25 years of service to God's Love on what would have been her 83rd birthday. Some of the people who shared stories and loving memories of Joan included: Karen Pearl, President & CEO; Chuck Piekarski, head baker of God's Love We Deliver; and Michael Sennott, Chairman of the Board of Trustees and Scott Currie, Joan's long-time friend. God's Love bakes and delivers a personalized birthday cake to every client on their birthday. This was one of Joan's favorite special touches. Today our friends gathered to decorate these cakes with Chuck the Baker, who Joan counted as one of her good friends, and always made sure she visited with him, whenever she was at God's Love. These birthday cakes will be delivered to clients later this week.
