

God's Love staff and volunteers before the Hometown Heroes Parade

7.11.21 / Community

Honoring God's Love at the Hometown Heroes Parade

By Emmett Findley, Director of Communications

On Wednesday, July 7, God's Love staff and volunteers joined thousands of New Yorkers on Fifth Avenue for the Hometown Heroes parade, honoring Essential Workers during COVID-19.

Hear from Staff Member Eddie Galante on WCBS 880

Related Posts

7.27.21 / Clients

6 Ways to Support Your Liver – World Hepatitis Day

July 28th is dedicated to raising awareness for viral hepatitis, a group of infectious diseases (A through E) that affects millions of people worldwide. Deaths from hepatitis have been increasing, with over one million succum...

7.11.21 / Community

Honoring God's Love at the Hometown Heroes Parade

On Wednesday, July 7, God's Love staff and volunteers joined thousands of New Yorkers on Fifth Avenue for the Hometown Heroes parade, honoring Essential Workers during COVID-19.

7.6.21 / Community

PRIDE at God's Love We Deliver

On Sunday June 27th, God's Love had a pride-filled celebration at our headquarters on Spring & 6th Avenue. We invited longtime supporters, donors and volunteers to be with us while we celebrated our history with the...