6.15.22
/ Volunteer

Volunteer Phyllis Kirschenbaum: Keeping Her "Monday Morning Appointment" for 30 Years

By Emmett Findley, Director of Marketing & Communications

Phyllis Kirschenbaum first showed up at God's Love We Deliver to volunteer in February of 1993. Her inspiration? She tells us, "I wanted to do something to provide nutritious and beautiful meals to people living with illness after struggling to do so for my sister in her battle with cancer."

Thirty years later, Phyllis still shows up bright and early for her 6:30 a.m. Monday shift (that's right – every Monday!) where she has made wonderful friends and gets a very good feeling to start her week.

And Phyllis is an influencer! A dear friend for forty years has joined the 9 a.m. shift, after hearing from Phyllis how much she loves God's Love. They part ways after a kiss hello and a chat over a few sips of coffee — Phyllis heads to the Volunteer Lounge to relax after a shift well done and her friend takes off to the kitchen to do the extraordinary work our volunteers do, day in and day out, week after week.

We thank Phyllis for all that she has done and all that she continues to do for our clients.

Celebrate Phyllis by Engaging with her Posts on Social Media

View this post on Instagram

A post shared by God's Love We Deliver (@godslovenyc)

Related Posts

10.9.24 / Volunteer

Allen-Stevenson School's 3rd Grade Spends Service Day with God's Love We Deliver

On October 1st, the Allen-Stevenson School's 3rd grade class paid a visit to God's Love We Deliver. The 28 boys were buzzing with excitement...

9.24.24 / Community

The Need for Human Blood: God's Love Hosts a Blood Drive with the New York Blood Center

God's Love sponsored a blood drive in partnership with the New York Blood Center.

9.20.24 / Volunteer

NYU Service Fair with Harriet Duffy and Patrick McGuire

Volunteer Engagement Coordinator Jonathan Gaffney writes about sharing the mission of God's Love We Deliver alongside our volunteers.