Is my donation tax-deductible?

Yes. God's Love We Deliver is a charitable non-profit approved by the Internal Revenue Service under the terms of section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (EIN: 13-3366846).

Whenever goods or services are provided by God's Love in consideration of a gift, God's Love will provide a timely written statement containing a description and good faith estimate of the value of goods or services received as outlined in IRS publication 1771.

Will I receive a receipt or acknowledgement for my gift?

Yes, you will receive an acknowledgement letter containing the gift date and amount for any cash contribution to God's Love over $4.99. For any In Kind donation, God's Love will provide an acknowledgment containing the gift date and a description of the donated goods. This acknowledgment can be used to substantiate your donation for tax purposes.

How can I give?

There are many ways to give to God's Love. Here are some options to consider.

When did our tile program begin?

In 1993, God's Love began the tile program to help fund the renovation of our then new kitchen. The tiles proved so popular that the effort was continued and more than 2,000 tiles were eventually purchased to support the initiative. These original tiles have been preserved and were reinstalled in our brand new kitchen in the Michael Kors Building. Find out more about our current tile program here.

Where can I find annual reports and other finance documents?

Please check out our Resources page for financial reports and our 990.
