

David Ludwigson

David Ludwigson joined God's Love We Deliver in 2007 as the Chief Development Officer. In 2017 he added the title Vice President. He is responsible for the Development, Volunteer and Communications functions. Before joining the non-profit, he was a God's Love volunteer for 10 years, and spent nearly two decades in sales and marketing, most recently as the Northeast Brand Manager for Ford Motor Company. During his tenure at God's Love, fundraising has more than doubled to $13 million; the number of volunteers has more than doubled to 13,000, and the number of meals cooked and delivered annually has also more than doubled to over 1.8 million. In 2015, God's Love completed a $38 million capital campaign that funded the brand new Michael Kors Building at God's Love We Deliver. David and his partner reside in Manhattan.
