

Tours and other in-house opportunities for kids at God's Love have been temporarily suspended due to COVID-19. We look forward to reinstating tours when the timing is right! Thank you.

Opportunities for Kids

There's so many ways to give to support our mission through volunteerism and we understand the importance of getting kids involved with philanthropy at a young age. We work with families, student and community groups, Troops and more who want to volunteer. To find out about Thanksgiving volunteering, please click here.

Third Friday of Every Month

Field Trip Friday

Want to show your class of students one of the largest kitchens in NYC? Look no further, and bring them to God's Love for Field Trip Friday! Students will tour our kitchen and rooftop garden, and get a chance to put their nutrition knowledge to use with a fun in-house worksheet.

Projects are tailored to the age of the group.

Email volunteer@glwd.org to schedule your field trip.

First Sunday of Each Month

Crafting Love at God's Love

Young folks can decorate birthday cards and other holiday cards for our clients. No artistic experience required -- just a whole lotta love

Email volunteer@glwd.org to schedule your shift.

Any time

Volunteer at Home, at School, or with a Community Group

Take God's Love with you wherever you go! Young folks can decorate birthday cards, winter holiday cards, Valentine's Day Cards, placemats and more. Thank you to illustrator Lindsey Balbierz for illustrating our placemat and seasonal produce.

Email volunteer@glwd.org to get started.
