Christina M. Verone Juliano is an experienced litigator and trial attorney. She approaches litigation matters as a trusted adviser offering clients and insurance providers practical and timely advice throughout the engagement that support the business and individual objectives of the case. Ms. Verone Juliano has represented clients in a broad range of civil matters, including commercial disputes, medical and dental malpractice defense, personal injury and general insurance defense, asbestos and toxic tort litigation, employment litigation, environmental litigation regarding the New York State Navigation Law, and Article 78 proceedings regarding the State Environmental Quality Review Act (SEQRA).

Ms. Verone Juliano has developed a niche practice in representing and defending dentists and oral surgeons and their respective practices, wherein she focuses on helping clients navigate the complex nature of malpractice claims including recordkeeping and compliance with State and federal regulations. She also assists clients in forming professional dental corporations, drafting dental partnership agreements and shareholder agreements, reviewing dental office leases, revising and negotiating dental practice sales agreements, and counseling dentists on employment law and dental compliance matters.

In addition, Ms. Verone Juliano represents regional and national insurance carriers in all aspects of insurance coverage including wrongful death claims, personal and premises security claims and subrogation. The caliber of her work and reputation has earned her recognition by both peers and clients, having been named as an Upstate New York Super Lawyers Rising Star, as well as an Associate Fellow to the Litigation Counsel of America, an invitation-only honorary society.

Ms. Verone Juliano is a member of the Fifth District Dental Society, a director at large for the Central New York Women's Bar Association, a member and section executive board director for the New York State Bar Association, and a member of the New York State Academy of Trial Lawyers.
