Courtney DeLia focuses her practice on wills, trusts, estate planning and retirement planning. As an associate in the Firm's Trusts & Estates, Elder Law and Special Needs Practices, she regularly assists with estate and tax planning, probate avoidance strategies, advising fiduciaries on the administration and eventual settlement of trusts and estates, and drafting wills and revocable and irrevocable trusts. Recognizing their individual needs, Ms. DeLia helps guide clients through difficult conversations about end-of-life planning and how to best provide care for their loved ones. Ms. Delia also represents clients in challenges and estate litigation.

Ms. DeLia is a graduate of SUNY Cortland and received her law degree from the University of Connecticut School of Law, where she was a Notes and Comments Editor for the Connecticut Insurance Law Journal.

Ms. DeLia is admitted to practice in New York.
