John L. Murad Jr. is a senior trial attorney in the Firm's Litigation practice group. His clients include national and local manufacturers and businesses, healthcare professionals and institutions, municipalities, and not-for-profit organizations. His practice has included the defense of manufacturers and businesses in product liability, medical device and toxic tort litigation. He has successfully defended healthcare professionals and institutions in malpractice litigation. He also defends healthcare professionals in disciplinary proceedings before the New York State Office of Professional Discipline and the Office of Professional Misconduct.

Mr. Murad was recognized for excellence as a trial attorney in 2005 when he was inducted into the prestigious American College of Trial Lawyers. Membership is by invitation only and limited to 1% of trial lawyers in the United States. Members are chosen based upon their demonstrated excellence as a trial attorney, together with the highest standards of ethical conduct and professionalism.

Mr. Murad serves as a mediator in the Northern District of New York Alternative Disposition Resolution Program and is retained regularly privately as a mediator and arbitrator.

He has served as a member of the Firm's Executive Committee and as Chair of its Litigation Practice Group.
