Timothy Murphy is the Managing Partner of Hancock Estabrook. He has served as Managing Partner since 2018, furthering the firm's mission to deliver quality and value with exceptional client service, to attract and develop top legal talent and to support the community. During this time, Hancock Estabrook has grown with the hiring of dozens of lawyers, paralegals and other professionals, moved into new state of the art office space in the penthouse floors of AXA Tower I, been named a Best Companies to Work for in New York and adopted a comprehensive strategic plan.

Prior to this role, Mr. Murphy served on the firm's Executive Committee and as Marketing & Business Development Partner. He previously served as Hancock Estabrook's Hiring Partner and Chair of the Long Range Planning Committee.

Mr. Murphy has 29 years of experience representing clients in product liability, motor vehicle, construction accident, medical malpractice, negligence, premises liability, toxic tort, and commercial cases in State and Federal Court.

He enjoys connecting with clients to understand their business and the issues they are facing. This allows him the opportunity to provide thorough, practical and creative advice when helping clients deal with litigation matters. Mr. Murphy's clients include Fortune 500 companies, product manufacturers, trucking companies, retailers, banks, individuals, small and medium-size businesses, security companies, higher education institutions and municipalities.

Mr. Murphy grew up in Syracuse and is a second-generation lawyer with strong connections to the Central New York community. His father retired as a New York State Supreme Court Justice after 30 years on the bench, and his brother is currently a Supreme Court Justice in Onondaga County and the Administrative Judge for the 5th Judicial District. Mr. Murphy has presented to New York State Supreme Court Justices on the topics of "Concussion and Traumatic Brain Injury Cases", "Resolving Medicare Liens" and "New York's Presumptive ADR Initiative" at 5th District Judicial Seminars. He was also appointed to the New York State Continuing Legal Education Board by Honorable A. Gail Prudenti, Chief Administrative Judge of the Courts of New York State.

Mr. Murphy is regularly retained to serve as a mediator in Syracuse and throughout Upstate New York. He has served as a mediator, arbitrator and early neutral evaluator in the Northern District of New York ADR Program. He focuses his mediation practice on construction and labor law, medical malpractice, motor vehicle, negligence, premises liability and product liability cases. He draws upon his extensive experience of representing clients on both sides of the table to help parties reach a mutually acceptable resolution of their dispute.

Outside of work, Mr. Murphy spends as much time as possible on or around Skaneateles Lake with his wife, Mary Ann, and their three children
