Brinson's practice focuses on commercial real estate matters, including financing, leasing, and development.

Prior to joining Manning Fulton, Brinson served as a law clerk to the Honorable Gregory P. McGuire on the North Carolina Business Court and the Honorable Richard Dietz on the North Carolina Court of Appeals.

Brinson received his law degree from the Wake Forest University School of Law. While at Wake Forest's School of Law, he served as symposium editor for the Wake Forest Journal of Business and Intellectual Property. Brinson also holds a Masters in Business Administration from Wake Forest's Babcock Graduate School of Management.

In his spare time, Brinson enjoys surfing and fishing on the North Carolina coast.
