Lauren Reeves joins Smith Debnam's Foreclosure and Bankruptcy group

October 28, 2010 | by

Smith Debnam welcomes Lauren V. Reeves as an associate concentrating her practice in the areas of foreclosures, bankruptcy, and creditor's rights. Lauren began her career representing lenders throughout central and eastern North Carolina in debt collection cases in foreclosure actions.

Lauren Reeves is a partner inside Smith Debnam's real estate, foreclosure, and creditors' rights sections. She represents lenders, individuals, and businesses in real estate matters, including real estate closings, purchasing, leasing, selling, financing and all issues of title arising in both residential and commercial real estate transactions.

Originally from Raleigh, Lauren graduated with honors from North Carolina State University, and received her Juris Doctor at Elon University School of Law. As a member of the Charter Class at Elon, Lauren co-founded, was President of, and served as Philanthropic Chair for the Women's Law Association.
