Leadership Raleigh: Max Rodden joins Class of 2011/2012

August 25, 2011 | by

Max Rodden, a family law attorney with the firm, will be representing Smith Debnam in the Leadership Raleigh class of 2011/2012. Max will join over 50 other participants from local companies to participate in the community program this year.

Leadership Raleigh is a nine-month program held in the greater Raleigh area emphasizing team projects, community orientation, and enhancing leadership skills. In addition to Max, Smith Debnam has sponsored numerous other professionals with the firm to participate in Leadership Raleigh, and each participant came away with valuable leadership skills, a greater knowledge of the community, and lasting personal and professional relationships.

Additional information about Leadership Raleigh is available online at Greater Raleigh Chamber of Commerce.
