ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Jennifer Quillen oversees the firm's compliance strategy and is responsible for ensuring its overall effective readiness in preventing, protecting, and correcting any incident of noncompliance. With the functional authority that grants her complete independence and objectivity, Jennifer monitors all activities across the firm in accordance with firm policies and client industry regulations, as well as state and federal regulatory agencies. Jennifer has 19 years of risk management and FDIC bank examiner experience. Prior to Smith Debnam, she served as a Risk Management Consultant and was responsible for the implementation of numerous, highly successful internal auditing programs for a number of leading banks and financial services institutions.

Smith Debnam welcomes new Compliance Officer, Jennifer Quillen

July 3, 2013 | by

We are pleased to welcome Jennifer Quillen as Compliance Officer for the firm. In this role, Jennifer will coordinate the firm's compliance strategy by formulating internal policies and procedures, providing regular compliance training to employees, helping the firm achieve necessary certifications, and auditing our control environment to best serve our creditor clients and their industry regulations.

Jennifer comes to the firm with 19 years of risk management and FDIC bank examiner experience. She has implemented many successful internal audit programs within the financial services industry and was most recently a Risk Management Consultant serving a number of leading banks and financial services institutions. She earned her BA in Business Administration from New Hampshire College. We are excited to have Jennifer on board to help us better serve the needs of our clients.

Jerry Myers, Managing Partner says, "We are excited that Jennifer is joining our team. Her background as a bank examiner with the FDIC combined with her work as Chief Risk Officer at a bank make her an ideal candidate to lead our Compliance Team. With her understanding of how government regulators approach issues, Jennifer will enable our firm to stay a step ahead of the security and privacy expectations of our clients in financial services industry."
