

Tuggle Duggins Sponsors Indian Festival

Posted on September 18, 2019

Scott Gayle, Vaughn Ramsey and Erin Bailey represented Tuggle Duggins at the Festival of Life at the Greensboro Coliseum in September- a concert and dance celebration during the Indian holiday season of Navratri.

Tuggle Duggins has long-standing ties to the India community and the hospitality industry throughout the State, and was pleased to be participating sponsor of this joyous family event.

Over 2,000 were in attendance, dancing traditional folk steps, called Garba Dandiya, around a huge circle to the driving sounds of well-know Indian icon, singer Falguni Pathak, who flew in from India with her band to start her US tour here.

Donations this year went to Coping Dementia Training, of Lewisville, NC, a 501(c)(3) which trains family members to care for dementia and Alzheimer patients while they are able to remain in the home.

Greensboro, NC 27401

Greensboro, NC 27402

Fax: 336.274.6590