
Three Tuggle Duggins Attorneys Participate in American Bar Association's "Adopt A Base" Program

Posted on February 3, 2022

Tuggle Duggins attorneys Mike Wenig, Vaughn Ramsey and Pete Evenson along with others recently trained volunteers from Ft. Bragg, NC who will participate in the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance ("VITA") program run by the Internal Revenue Service. Their participation was part of the American Bar Association's "adopt a base" program to assist volunteers at military bases across the country in helping active duty and retired personnel with the preparation of their income tax returns. This year the Ft. Bragg VITA volunteers were specifically tasked with assisting Gold Star families in the Ft. Bragg area. Mike, Vaughn and Pete have participated in the "adopt a base" program for many years.
