Matt Hoyt focuses primarily on helping clients resolve commercial and general business disputes.

Matt graduated from Wake Forest University School of Law (J.D., cum laude) in 2018. While in law school, Matt served as an Articles Editor for the Wake Forest Law Review. In addition, he received the CALI Excellence for the Future Award – Business Organizations and the North Carolina Advocates for Justice Award.

Prior to law school, Matt received his undergraduate degree from College of Charleston. After college, Matt spent a year with City Year, an Americorps program focused on helping high-need schools by supporting students and schools. After his time with City Year, Matt worked as a paralegal at an immigration law firm in Boston.

Outside of the Office

Matt is from Andover, Massachusetts. When he's not in the office, he is typically spending time with his wife, his golden doodle, Ellie, or watching Boston sports – especially the Patriots.
