In addition to providing legal advice, Spencer Krantz serves as an advocate for his clients and works hard to support their best interests. Thinking strategically and creatively, he focuses his litigation practice on helping to resolve both commercial and general business disputes. Spencer is always keen on helping a client see a path toward success.

Having served in the military, he looks to his prior leadership experiences to influence his peers, opponents, and other community members toward a positive result for clients. Following his graduation from the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, Spencer served in the United States Army from 2009 to 2014. His leadership positions included Troop Fire Support Officer, Scout Platoon Leader, Rifle Platoon Leader, and Battalion Fire Support Officer. Additionally, he attended the Airborne and Air Assault Schools. Spencer was awarded the Bronze Star while deployed to Iraq from 2010 to 2011. He served in the North Carolina Army National Guard where he was an Artillery Officer. Additionally, Spencer served as a Battalion Intelligence Officer, Battalion Fire Support Officer and Battery Commander. He is also active in the West Point Society of North Carolina Piedmont.

During law school at Wake Forest, Spencer served as a teaching assistant for Contracts and Commercial Transactions and Commercial Leasing and received the Cali Award for Excellence in Contracts and Commercial Transactions. While at Liberty University for his Masters of Business Administration degree, he was inducted into the Sigma Beta Delta Honor Society.

Outside of the Office

When not in the office, Spencer spends the majority of his time with his wife and their two children – Larry, a mini goldendoodle and Turner, a golden retriever. Additionally, he enjoys hiking within the Blue Ridge Mountains, golfing, and being on the water – especially Smith Mountain Lake.

Spencer was born and raised in Bedford, VA.
