

Home Office Suite

Trusted advisors bring experience, organization, and coordination to ensure that your most important assets – your family and family business – remain viable for generations to come.

Tuggle Duggins' Family Office Suite is a cost-effective solution for your unique family office needs. A customizable solution to accommodate the complexity and goals unique to your family and your family business, the suite of services we provide covers your legal needs and addresses all aspect of your family office legal needs.

One of the hallmarks of this alternative legal model is the flexibility it provides. From our experienced attorneys and depth of practice area understanding, you choose what best fits your family office needs. We tailor our services to your family and your family's business, understanding that no two issues are alike. Additionally, you select the billing model best suited for you. Whether that be on a traditional hourly model or a monthly flat fee rate (based upon predicted uses), we seek to provide the ultimate flexibility to our clients, recognizing that legal solutions are best met with adaptability and solution-oriented services.