

Intellectual Property

Tuggle Duggins offers its clients a full suite of intellectual property legal services to help protect their innovations. Our clients range from solo inventors and early-stage companies to established businesses and Fortune 500 enterprises. We counsel clients on every aspect of the acquisition, maintenance, enforcement, licensing and transfer of patents, copyrights, and trademarks. Additionally, clients receive guidance on the evaluation of third-party assets in an attempt to avoid or limit competitive inefficiencies and overlap.
