

Corporate & Individual Tax Planning

We pride ourselves in assisting our clients with understanding the complex world of federal, state, and local taxation and its impact on their planning needs.

Our attorneys' tax controversy experience positions us to offer clients a unique perspective in planning for the tax consequences of business transactions, such as the formation of business entities of all types, business entity conversions, corporate acquisitions and divestitures, joint ventures, and transactions involving general and limited partnerships, limited liability companies, and S corporations.

Our attorneys assist clients with their individual tax planning needs, as well as assisting with areas such as estate planning and charitable gift planning.
