

Tax Exempt Organization & Financing

Tax-exempt organizations face a number of unique legal issues. Our attorneys have extensive experience representing a wide variety of tax-exempt organizations, including nonprofit organizations, unincorporated entities and trusts, and other organizations that are exempt from income taxation.

We assist our clients with a number of formation, management and taxation issues, including obtaining and retaining tax-exempt status.

Our attorneys also have experience in assisting clients with the issues involved in the pursuit of tax-exempt financing.

We provide tax analysis, advice, and opinions on tax-exempt financing for a wide variety of clients and we are experienced in assisting clients during all stages of the pursuit of tax-exempt bonds. We advise clients on all aspects of federal, state, and local tax issues.