Ward and Smith, P.A. is proud to sponsor the 70th North Carolina Azalea Festival. The annual community celebration and largest festival of its kind in the state will be held on April 5-9 in Wilmington. According to the event's website, festival attendees will enjoy parades, street fairs, home and garden tours, fireworks, concerts by national artists, and the coronation of a Festival Queen and Princess, and of course, azaleas in their springtime bloom. Visit ncazaleafestival.org to view all upcoming festival events.
