

Alex Dale Appointed to NC IOLTA Board of Trustees

---

Written By Alexander C. Dale (acd@wardandsmith.com)

August 9, 2022

The North Carolina State Bar has appointed Alex Dale to the Interest on Lawyers' Trust Accounts (IOLTA) Board of Trustees.

The board supervises the operation of the IOLTA program, which was established by the North Carolina State Bar and the North Carolina Supreme Court to generate income from lawyers' trust accounts to fund programs for the public's benefit. Since its inception, the IOLTA has awarded over $105 million in grants to provide legal assistance for individuals, families, and children in all North Carolina counties.

Alex's practice experience encompasses a broad range of business law matters, including experience representing individuals, start-ups, small businesses, and multi-national companies in a variety of fields. His experience includes intellectual property transactional matters, corporate governance, business organization and succession planning, contract negotiation, and complex business litigation. He has also taken numerous cases to a final decision in the areas of breach of contract litigation, trusts and estates litigation, securities and investment advisor litigation, corporate litigation, and complex business litigation.

As chair of the firm's Appellate Practice Group, Alex is frequently asked by his colleagues within the law firm and outside of the law firm to assist clients in appellate matters. He is a North Carolina State Bar Board Certified Specialist in Appellate Law.