

David Ward Receives Outstanding Eagle Scout Award

September 18, 2017

Ward and Smith, P.A. is proud to announce that David Ward is a recipient of the National Eagle Scout Association "Outstanding Eagle Scout Award." Ward will be honored at the Boys Scouts of America East Carolina Council awards banquet on September 19 at Rock Springs Center in Greenville, NC.

Ward's practice experience encompasses antitrust, banking, labor, personnel, litigation, trusts and estates, and all phases of business law. He has represented banks, bank holding companies, public housing authorities, and community colleges on a multitude of issues. He is a member of the American Bar Foundation and is the Director Emeritus of the Board of the Research Triangle Foundation of North Carolina and a current director of the East Carolina University Medical & Health Sciences Foundation. Ward also served on the Medlin Commission on the Future of the Courts in North Carolina and chaired its Technology Committee.