

Follow Your Holiday Joy to Jingle in the Park, Sponsored by Ward and Smith!

November 30, 2023

Bring the cheer of the holiday season to life on Saturday, December 9, at Jingle in the Park!

Join the North Carolina Azalea Festival for a day of festive fun at Halyburton Park in Wilmington, NC. From 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., families can snap photos with Santa, indulge in tasty treats, make merry memories with arts and crafts, and enjoy captivating performances from local youth.

Jingle in the Park is not only a celebration of the holiday season but also a charitable event. A portion of the proceeds from the event will benefit the Cape Fear Volunteer Center and Big Buddy, making it an opportunity for the community to come together and support important local causes. And Ward and Smith is proud to support their efforts to bring joy and festive spirit to families during the holidays.

Don't miss the event. Register today to become part of the festivities.
