Immerse yourself in the captivating narratives of Wilmington's most inspiring individuals at the forthcoming Power Breakfast hosted by the Wilmington Business Journal.

Taking place on Thursday, December 14, this event titled "Wilmington's Most Intriguing People of 2023" recognizes local leaders and changemakers who have made a profound impact on the community throughout the past year. The esteemed speakers, carefully chosen for their exceptional contributions to the city of Wilmington, represent a diverse range of sectors and industries. Notable figures include:

- William Buster
- Chris Coudriet
- Bill Early
- Natalie English
- Dr. Charles Foust

These distinguished individuals will engage in thought-provoking discussions encompassing a wide array of topics, including transformational change and the anticipated developments of 2024, the vitalization of projects, sustainable economic growth, effective employee retention strategies, and the pursuit of academic excellence. The main program will commence at 8:15 a.m. at the Wilmington Convention Center.
