

Get Your Dancing Shoes Ready for Two Worthy Causes

January 28, 2020

Saturday, February 8, will be an exciting night of glitz, glamour, and dancing for two great causes. Ward and Smith is thrilled to support them both.

Greenville Heart Ball

In Greenville, the Heart Ball gets underway at 6 p.m. at the Greenville Convention Center. This event, hosted by the American Heart Association, celebrates efforts to change health outcomes as they relate to heart disease and stroke, build a foundation of health in communities, and ensure everyone lives a longer, healthier life. The evening festivities will include dinner, a silent and live auction, and an opportunity to Open Your Heart to further support the non-profit's mission further.

Just a couple hours away in Wilmington, the Cinderella's Masquerade Ball will kick off at 7 p.m. at the Brooklyn Arts Center. Grace United Methodist Church is hosting the event to benefit Cinderella's Closet, which provides formal wear to girls that could not otherwise attend prom. All proceeds will go to purchasing dresses and accessories.

Attendees must be 21 years or older. Tickets are $50 each or $85 per couple. Purchase tickets here.
