Attorney Juliana Inman is taking on a new leadership role within the District 4 Bar Association: Vice President.

She started her new role this year after being elected to serve as the District's Secretary/ Treasurer for 2020. According to bylaws, each position automatically succeeds to the next; meaning in 2022, Juliana will step into the top executive position to become President of the District 4 Bar Association, which encompasses Craven, Pamlico, and Carteret Counties.

In her current role, Juliana will be responsible for assisting the President with conducting the annual meeting and any other necessary meetings throughout the year.

Juliana Inman is a family law and litigation attorney in Ward and Smith's New Bern office.
