

Ken Gray to Moderate RTAC-ACC 2022 Biennial Institute Webinar Panel

February 14, 2022

Labor and employment attorney Ken Gray will moderate a panel during the 2022 Biennial Institute webinar on February 16.

The one-day virtual event is hosted by the Research Triangle Area Chapter of the Association of Corporate Counsel (RTAC-ACC). It will feature multiple panel sessions tackling issues and challenges that in-house counsel routinely faces.

Ken will moderate a LARP, also known as a Live Action Role Playing, on real-life HR scenarios. Attendees will assume the role and viewpoint of an HR professional, employee, or others as they walk through case examples related to employment issues. Sign-up for this session here.

Other panel topics covered over day-long CLE include ethics, government contracting in the era of remote work, and contract indemnification. You'll have to register for each session. For more information about how to sign-up, click here.
