

Be Ready for Anything! Madeline Lipe to Share Disaster Prep Tips at CAI-NC Event

May 23, 2023

Learn how to weather any storm at the Disaster Prep Takes Many Forms event on Thursday, June 1.

Join Ward and Smith community associations attorney Madeline Lipe, Dawn Becker-Durnin of People First Property & Casualty, and Katelyn Spicer of RestorePro Reconstruction as they tackle the challenges posed by unforeseen calamities. In this panel discussion, the trio of industry professionals will provide comprehensive insights into everything from insurance to restoration, equipping you with the tools necessary to navigate natural disasters or other unexpected events.

The Disaster Prep Takes Many Forms panel, which is hosted by the North Carolina Chapter of the Community Associations Institute, will be held at Waterman's Brewing in Wilmington, NC, from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m. The event welcomes manager and homeowner members at a ticket price of $35, while non-members can attend at $50 per ticket. Non-sponsoring business partner members can participate at $95, and non-member business partners can attend at $115. Please RSVP by May 29 through this link.

WATER DAMAGE

FIRE DAMAGE

MOLD RESTORATION

JUNE 1
3:00 - 5:00 PM
WILMINGTON

Don't be caught off guard when disaster strikes!

Join us for a panel discussion with a team of industry professionals who will help prepare you for what comes before, during and after a disaster - natural or otherwise.

From insurance to restoration, learning these tips in advance can save you major headaches and your community major money.

Presenters:

Dawn Becker-Durnin, CIRMS, People First Property & Casualty

Madeline Lipe, Ward and Smith, PA

Katelyn Spicer, RestorePro

After the program, stay for light bites and a cash bar.

Attendance earns 1 CEU

$35 manager and homeowner member / $50 non-member

$95 non-sponsoring business partner / $115 non-member

JUNE 1
3:00 - 5:00 PM
WATERMAN'S BREWING

bit.ly/JuneWLM

*or scan QR code

