

Grant B. Osborne Elected to North Carolina Bar Association's Labor and Employment Law Section Council

October 29, 2013

Ward and Smith, P.A. is proud to announce that Mr. Grant B. Osborne was formally elected to the North Carolina Bar Association's Labor and Employment Law Section Council. He has more than 25 years of experience practicing labor and employment law and primarily represents clients in the health care, financial, hospitality, construction, business services, and non-profit sectors.