

Paul Fanning to Serve on Keynote Panel About Bankruptcy

November 24, 2020

Creditors' rights attorney Paul Fanning will help Thomson Reuters kick off their 2020 Gear Up Online Conference, a premier CPE program for accountants and tax professionals.

Paul will participate in the keynote opening panel on Monday, November 30, at 9 a.m. Other bankruptcy experts will join him to answer key questions about accountants serving bankruptcy clients. Paul will specifically address issues related to choosing the proper form of bankruptcy, Subchapter V advantages, and bankruptcy discharge. Other topics covered by panelists include:

- Indicators for wholesale reorganization
- Proper circumstances for bankruptcy
- Workout advantages
- CODI and Section 108
- Accountants and real regulation
- Referring clients to attorneys
- Collaborating with lawyers

Bankruptcy Judge David Warren, who sits in the federal judicial district that is the conceptual birthplace of small business bankruptcy, will moderate the one-hour virtual panel.

The Gear Up Online Conference runs through December 15. For more information about the agenda and registration, visit <https://checkpoinlearning.thomsonreuters.com/GearUp/Conferences>.
