Nonprofit Executive Shares Leadership Insight

Pamela J. Norley is the president of Fidelity Charitable, an independent public charity that sponsors the nation's largest donor-advised fund program. In this role, Norley drives the organization's core mission to grow American philanthropy by providing programs that make giving accessible, simple and effective. She also serves as a co-leader for Fidelity's North Carolina region which includes offices in Durham and Cary and approximately 3,600 employees.

At this C-Suite Perspectives breakfast, Norley will explore lessons she learned throughout her leadership journey. What challenges has she faced, and how did she surmount them? Find out how you can apply her experiences to your own professional life.
