

Register for the Last Community Association Building Blocks Webinar of the 2021

December 6, 2021

Join us for the last Community Association Building Blocks webinar of the year on December 9.

Attorney Clint Cogburn will discuss how zoning and land use laws can affect community associations as well as tax exemption applications. The session will conclude with a live Q&A.

Our Community Association Building Blocks sessions are designed specifically for association managers. These sessions are free to attend, but registration is required.

Sign-up today!