

Tap into Asheville's Beer Week

May 21, 2018

Get ready to grab a pint and kick back.

The AVL Beer Week starts this Friday, May 25 in Asheville. We're thrilled to support the nine-day event, which celebrates local craft beers and breweries.

The 2018 theme is "Grain to Glass," and will include educational events, beer dinners, film screenings, festivals, and much more. The biggest event, the Beer City Festival, will take place on June 2, the last day of beer week.

Here's a sampling of AVL Beer Week events:

- Brewing for the Production of Whisky
- Local Singer-Songwriter Showcase Series
- Gathering of the Goses Festival
- Just Brew It Homebrew Competition
- Beer Mile at the Mountain Sports Festival
- Brewery Volleyball Tournament
- Food and Beer Pairing Dinner
- Malt Talk with Riverbend
- Beer & Cupcake Flight
- See a full list of events here.

This is the seventh year for the AVL Beer Week, which is a collaboration with the Asheville Brewers Alliance. Ticket prices will vary depending on the event, so check out AVLBeerWeek.com for more information about times, dates, and Prices.
