

Vidant Health's CEO to Speak at March Power Luncheon

March 12, 2019

The Greenville-Pitt County Chamber of Commerce Power Luncheon will feature value insights from Vidant Health's Chief Executive Officer Michael Waldrum.

Dr. Waldrum was named chief executive officer of Vidant Health back in June 2015. He has significant expertise and experience in managing the clinical operations of hospitals and clinics. Waldrum is a board-certified specialist in critical care medicine and pulmonology and is trained in internal medicine. He is the current chair of the North Carolina Healthcare Association Board of Trustees. Learn more about Dr. Waldrum here.

The program starts at noon on Tuesday, March 19 at the Hilton Greenville. Tickets are $20 per member and $30 for non-members. Register here.

Ward and Smith is proud to sponsor the Chamber's Power Luncheon series.
