

Ward and Smith Sponsors Community Fabric Awards

April 6, 2017

Ward and Smith, P.A. is proud to be the presenting sponsor of Craven Community College Foundation's 7th Annual Community Fabric Awards. According to the event's website, the awards showcase individual, business, and educational excellence in leadership as demonstrated by outstanding initiative, impact of service and inspiration of others. The awards recognize, reward, and encourage activities that have a significant impact in meeting the needs of our local communities. Net proceeds from the event will benefit the Craven Community College

Foundation.

The event will be held on Tuesday, April 18 at the New Bern Riverfront Convention Center. For additional information, visit the event website.
