

Ward and Smith Sponsors Cryptolina Expo

June 14, 2018

In support of the growing interest in cryptocurrencies, Ward and Smith is thrilled to announce our sponsorship of the Cryptolina Expo 2018.

The annual event kicks off this Friday, June 15 at the Raleigh Convention Center. The expo offers two full days of education, innovation, and networking in what organizers say is "The Defining Blockchain Event of the Carolinas."

More than 20 exhibitors and 50 speakers are slated for the conference. They will be featured guests on a panel titled "Why ICOs and STOs are Crowdfunding on Steroids." Their discussion gets underway just after 10 a.m. on Friday.

In addition to panel discussions, attendees can view startup demos, listen to ICO pitches, network, and recruit.

Cryptolina began in 2013, and its core mission was to highlight the emerging buzz surrounding blockchain and other cryptocurrencies in the Carolinas. Now in its fourth year, the expo has expanded to cover topics such as tokenization, industry employment and policy and regulation.
